

<S8-1>

National Screening Guideline for Dyslipidemia in Korea

Belong Cho
Seoul National University, Korea

Korean national health screening program recommended lipid screening every 1 or 2 years depend on the qualification of the insured. New guideline, which started 2018, changed its screening frequency recommendation every 4 years. What kinds of evidence were used to change the guideline will be presented and discussed in this session